Driving Directions: From 1-30 through Dallas, go east past 635 and continue east on I-30. Go over Lake Ray Hubbard and take the Dalrock exit, go left or North. Take Dalrock until it dead ends into Liberty Grove, take a right onto Liberty Grove. After about 1 mile, Liberty Grove changes its name turns into Stonewall Rd. Continue 1/4 mile over small bridge and past blue house on right, a stone mailbox with a dog on top, a stone house, a taupe house marked 3425 and then a white, cliché-rock parking lot with with buckets in front. That is where the PFA's parking lot is. Please drive and park here and not at our personal residence.

From the George Bush Turnpike or 190 go east from central or I-75. Stay on 190 until it turns into Firewheel Pkwy, go right at Firewheel Pkwy. At the intersection of Pleasant Valley and Firewheel and NE Pkwy take Pleasant Valley left or northeast. Shortly after turning left on Pleasant Valley you'll see a gun range on the right, look for the signs saying Pleasant Valley because it takes a sharp right within a 1/4 mile after the gun range. Stay on Pleasant Valley for about 4 miles to Elm Grove. Go right on Elm Grove. Go about 1.5 miles and left on Vinson. Go about 3/4's of a mile and right on Stonewall. The first parking lot you come to on the left is a white, cliché-rock parking lot with white buckets in front. Park here.

WC/WCX

May 18 in Rockwall

The club is in the process of organizing a WC/WCX for May 18 in Rockwall. The premium will be on the club website. Call Richard Woodmansee if you are interested in helping.

If you want to see whether your puppy or older dog will pick up at a bird, come at lunch and you will have a chance to let your dog try and retrieve.

FROM THE WEB

1. After your humans give you a bath, DON'T LET THEM TOWEL DRY YOU!

Instead, run to their bed, jump up, and dry yourself off on the sheets. This is especially good if it's right before your humans' bedtime.

2. Act like a convicted criminal. When the humans come home, put your ears back, tail between your legs, chin down, and act as if you have done something really bad. Then, watch as the humans frantically search the house for the damage they think you have caused. (Note: This only works when you have done absolutely nothing wrong.)

3. Let the humans teach you a brand new trick. Learn it perfectly. When the humans try to demonstrate it to someone else, stare blankly back at the humans. Pretend you have no idea what they're talking about.

4. When out for a walk, alternate between choking and coughing every time a strange human walks by.

5. Make your own rules. Don't always bring back the stick when playing fetch with the humans. Make them go and chase it once in a while.

6. Hide from your humans. When your humans come home, don't greet them at the door. Instead, hide from them, and make them think something terrible has happened to you. (Don't reappear until one of your humans is panic-stricken and close to tears).

7. When your human calls you to come back in, always take your time. Walk as slowly as possible back to the door.

9. Wake up twenty minutes before the alarm clock is set to go off, and make the humans take you out. As soon as you get back inside, fall asleep. (Humans can rarely fall back asleep after going outside, this will drive them nuts!)

Exhibitor's Standards

CHARACTERISTICS

A pleasant intelligent person, helpful, considerate, attentive and of a sporting demeanour. Always willing to give advice and assistance to newcomers, or to others needing it. Attentive to the needs of the dogs being handled, and present each dog to its best advantage.

GENERAL APPEARANCE

A neat, smart, fit looking individual, well-groomed, well shod and well-equipped, who moves freely both in and out of the ring.

TEMPERAMENT

Calm, confident, unhurried and friendly.

HEAD

Neither big nor pin headed. Skull broad to allow for plenty of brain power. Expression pleasant and smiling, regardless of judges' decisions, other exhibitors actions and the dog's behavior. Nose small so as to not be stuck into where it is not wanted.

EYES

Sharp and bright Observant of other exhibitors location, judges hand signals and the movement and position of all dogs in the ring.

MOUTH

Usually best kept closed except to briefly answer judges questions or to congratulate successful exhibitors. Teeth clean, white and presented in a smiling fashion at all times.

NECK

Long enough to hold the head up proudly and flexible enough to turn the head as to observe everything that is happening in the ring. Should never be stuck out.

FOREQUARTERS

Shoulders broad and able to shrug off unsporting comments from other exhibitors. Arms of sufficient length and strength to extend a handshake to the winners, keep a firm hold on the dog, collect any prize cards, and give a friendly pat to the dog all at the same time.

BODY

Sufficiently slim as to not impede other exhibitors leaving the ring and to not completely block the judges view of all the dogs behind.

HINDQUARTERS

Well developed and strong so as to be able to move the dog in the ring at its optimum speed.

FEET

Firmly on the ground as this is only a sport after all. To be kept out of the mouth at all times.

GAIT

Free moving and graceful, moving in harmony with the dogs speed.

COAT

Dress should be neat, clean and tidy, neither flamboyant nor immodest, but designed to allow free movement without distraction to any dog in the ring. Feet should be well shod in practical shoes to allow for easy movement.

COLOR

Should be chosen to complement the color of the dog, or if several different colored dogs are being handled, to at least not completely hide the outline of any dog, e.g. wearing a long black skirt when showing a black dog.

SIZE

Exhibitors may come in all sizes and shapes, the only limitation being ability to do justice to the dog when in the ring.

MAJOR FAULTS

Dirty or scruffy appearance, grumpy, vicious or flustered temperament; swollen head; loud mouth, especially when used for insulting comments or bad language; unsporting behavior; unkempt dress.

NOTE:

The usual Kennel Club requirement that all males have two apparently normal testicles fully descended into the scrotum has been dispensed with, in the interests of decorum and to avoid any sudden inspections with attendant violent reactions, while male exhibitors are attending dog shows.
