Going for the golden

Family Fun! D-FW Metro Golden Retriever Club agility trials, North Texas State Fair and Rodeo, Peter Pan

Is there any breed of dog more majestically handsome than the golden retriever? Witness the animals' beauty and ability to maneuver through poles, jump through tires and run through tunnels at the Dallas-Fort Worth Metro Golden Retriever Club agility trials this weekend at Will Rogers Memorial Center. More than 300 dogs — of all breeds, not just goldies — will compete in various exercises. Only dogs entered in competition are allowed in the building.

North Texas State Fair and Rodeo

What's more family-friendly than a fair? This 80th annual event features livestock, a carnival, fair food, rodeos and more. Concert headliners this year include Randy Rogers Band, David Ball, Stoney LaRue and Restless Heart. But of course, music and live performances abound throughout. The fairgrounds open at 6 p.m. Monday-Friday and 1 p.m. Saturday and Sunday; they close at midnight Sunday-Thursday and 1 a.m. Friday and Saturday. Rodeos are at 7:30 p.m. nightly.

Friday through Aug. 23 at North Texas State Fairgrounds, 2217 N. Carroll Blvd., Denton. $12; $5 for ages 6-12; parking $5 per vehicle. 940-387-2632; www.ntfair.com

Peter Pan

Another sign that Artisan Center Theater has to have the fastest-growing audience of any North Texas theater: It now has performances every day of the week except Sunday. ACT also continues to double-cast shows, so there's a good chance you could see a show twice with different actors and come away with different reactions. Next up is the 1954 musical version of the beloved-by-kids-of-all-ages James M. Barrie tale.

Friday through Sept. 13 at Artisan Center Theater, 404 E. Pipeline Road, Hurst. $8-$15. 817-284-1200; www.artisanct.com
